

Hawaiian Mission Houses Historic Site and Archives Presents

"My Name is 'Ōpūkaha'ia"

Presented By

United Congregational Church Torrington, Connecticut

Saturday, October 12, 2019 - 7p.m.

A dramatic one-person play by Moses Goods about the life of 'Ōpūkaha'ia, one of the most influential historical figures of Hawai'i

Please join us for a commemoration of the bicentennial of the Sandwich Islands Mission Hawaiian with a special performance of "My Name is 'Ōpūkaha'ia," a one-person dramatic portrayal of the young Hawaiian who inspired the ABCFM mission, forever tying New England to Hawai'i.

Performance at United Congregational Church,
1622 Torrington Street, Torrington, CT 06790

"A riveting historical performance by one of Hawai'i's greatest actors." - James Charisma, Honolulu Magazine

www.missionhouses.org
info@missionhouses.org

1820  2020

Hawaiian Mission Houses
Historic Site and Archives

